

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

FOOD PRODUCTION CAMPAIGN.

In order to perform my duty to my country in winning the Great War, I hereby VOLUNTEER as a FARMER to plant, cultivate, harvest, and otherwise care for the following acreage of food and feed crops and to raise livestock as indicated below for the support of myself and family and to market as food for the Nation and all dependent upon the Nation for support:

Crop.	What I planted in 1917.	What I will plant in 1918.
Acres Corn
Acres Rye
Acres Wheat
Acres Oats
Acres Barley
Acres Rice
Acres Kafir
Acres Milo
Acres Feterita
Acres Peanuts
Acres Soy Beans
Acres Velvet Beans.....
Acres Cow Peas.....
Acres Potatoes
Acres Sweet Potatoes
Acres Sugar Cane
Acres Sorghum
Acres Hay Crops
Acres Pasturage
Acres Alfalfa
Acres Clovers
Acres Vegetables
(for Market)
Acres Home Garden
Acres Cotton.....
Sows to be bred.....
Dairy cows milked
Cows bred
Hens set

This is all I can handle with my present supply of labor, teams, tools and other equipment. I will make any needs for extra help at certain seasons known to the proper authorities and will cooperate with other farmers when necessary to increase food production and eliminate all possible waste. I will do everything possible on my farm to prevent waste or destruction of crops in fields or in storage.

I make this voluntary offer to the United States Government in order to do my duty in this hour of need.

(Name)

(P. O. Address)

(State)

